TASTING

AT VINTNERS' HALL
INCLUDING FINE WINE ROOM

Wednesday 8th
November 2023

Champagne Duménil

Welcome to our 2023 Annual Wine Tasting. Our traditional tasting at Vintners' Hall has become one of the highlights of the Christmas calendar. It's ideally timed to help you select wines to drink over the festive season and for planning gifts to send to colleagues, friends and family, whether close to home or further afield.

This year's tasting features more producers than ever before and we are proud to present the opportunity to taste and meet with the people and families behind our wines.

We hope you enjoy the tasting and thank you for joining us.

James Davy
Chairman, 5th Generation

Jean Becker Alsace, France.
Represented by Martine Becker

The Becker family's winemaking legacy dates back to 1610, in Zellenberg, a village opposite Riquewhir, in eastern France. Thirteen generations on, the custodianship of the estate is now in the hands of Jean Becker, who has overseen the organic certification of all five of their vineyard holdings, which are spread across five Grand Cru areas of Alsace. Their certification reinforces their attention to detail, respect for their unique terroir and dedication to producing wines of the highest standard.

Pounamu Marlborough, New Zealand.
Represented by Fleur McCree

Pounamu wines come from a family owned, single vineyard estate in the revered Southern Valleys of Marlborough. First planted in 2003, it's led by ex Cloudy Bay Head Winemaker, Evelyn Fraser and the team have more than 100 year's combined viticultural experience. The style showcases the wines' distinctive characters; purity, regional typicity and sense of place. The evocative, authentic label also helps tell the story of Pounamu as a treasured green stone, sacred to the people of NZ. It is only found in the South Island – so, like its namesake, Pounamu wines honour that precious heritage, unique environment and Kiwi spirit.

Little Beauty Marlborough, New Zealand.
Represented by Fleur McCree

This great little privately-owned estate lies in Marlborough's Southern Valleys, where the wines differ slightly from the mainstream. This delectable property is spread over five plots, each with its own soil profile and microclimate, which allows winemaker Eveline Fraser (former head winemaker at Cloudy Bay) the chance to make unusually complex, multi-dimensional wines. The winemaking is modern, but there is more than a nod towards tradition; in 'Little Beauty', the best of new and the best of the old unite seamlessly.

Te Kano Estate Central Otago, New Zealand.
Represented by Natalie Walsh

Te Kano, meaning ‘The Seed’ in Maori, is a family-owned wine estate in Central Otago that primarily produces artisanal Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, and Pinot Gris. The estate’s owners, the Lloyd family, are passionate about the land and committed to its rejuvenation, reminding us that the seeds we plant today will blossom for generations to come. Following organic practices, they grow and create all their wines from estate grown fruit, overseeing every step from grape to glass. The wines reflect their place and express the characteristics of three distinct Otago subregions: Bannockburn, Northburn, and Waitaki. Low yielding, delicately handled, and sustainably farmed, Te Kano has quickly established itself among the finest producers in the region.

Sidewood Estate Adelaide Hills, Australia.
Represented by Sanna van Herwaarden

Sidewood Estate is a family-owned estate located in the Adelaide Hills, the heart of Australian cool climate wine production. In 2004, Owen and Cassandra Inglis purchased the estate with the goal of creating elegant and stylish wines, focused on quality and underpinned by impeccable winemaking which reflect the beauty of the region. Every wine produced from the estate is made from carefully handpicked fruit from selected rows across their 300-acres of vineyards, before being entrusted to internationally acclaimed winemaker Darryl Catlin. They are the largest Certified Sustainable Winery in the Adelaide Hills and are accredited with a five Red Star Halliday Wine Companion rating for regularly producing wines of exemplary quality and typicity.

Nardi Viticoltori Tuscany, Italy.
Represented by Giacomo Nardi

Located near Castellina, in the heart of Chianti, Nardi Viticoltori is family-run and one of the youngest wineries in the region. After gaining experience in some of Chianti's best estates, brothers Giacomo and Angelo Nardi decided to produce their own wines from the family vines, just for fun, in 2014. Their passion paid off and today they produce four wines from their own land. The vineyards benefit from a southeast exposition and spread over 10-hectares of clay soils. Yields are kept low to produce grapes with great concentration of fruit, and the winery is in the middle of the vineyards, so the grapes are pressed with no delay, retaining their freshness.

Represented by Daniele Pelassa

Located in Montà d'Alba, in the chalky Roero hills of Piedmont, the Pelassa family owns 12 hectares of vineyards focusing on the grapes best suited for the land: Nebbiolo, Barbera, and Arneis. The present winery was created in 1960 by the late Mario Pelassa, who had been in the wine business for over 50 years. Today, his sons, Davide and Daniele run the estate adhering to mainly traditional methods of vinification, but has also integrated modern winemaking techniques.

Represented by Riccardo Lepri

Tenuta Montauto is situated in Maremma, one of the wildest and most unspoilt areas of Tuscany. In 2001, Riccardo Lepri took over the management of the estate from his grandfather, Enos. The vineyards are nestled 200 metres above sea level and are planted on clay-rich soils which benefit from a cooling sea breeze and large diurnal temperatures. This unique microclimate coupled with Riccardo's practices of minimum intervention, hand harvesting and use of natural fertilisers help produce wines that are vibrant and fresh, showcasing his unique terroir with balance and elegance.

Patricio Gouguenheim's love of wine started at an early age when his French parents gave him a little bit of wine mixed with sparkling water. Many years later, his interest and passion for wine alongside his dream of producing wines which he could be proud of, led him to establish the estate. Located 45 miles from the city of Mendoza in the foothills of the Andes, Gouguenheim is one of the best-kept secrets in the Uco Valley. Situated at an altitude of 3,600 feet (one of the highest estates in Mendoza), the estate benefits from the vast temperature difference between day and night which together with irrigation from the Andes snowmelt, allows the estate to produce fruit with optimum ripening and concentration. With the expertise of Patricio and his winemaking team, the resulting wines offer impeccable quality and great value.

Based in Tupungato, their 110-hectare vineyard is at an altitude of 1200m. Along with being one of the highest vineyards in the world, the unique cool nights and constant breeze, as well as very low rainfall, creates perfect conditions for the production of organically grown ripe fruit, with bright acidity.

The family estate was first established in the 1890s, but it wasn't until 1995 when Anne-Marie (daughter of Odette and Arnaud Achiary) and Jean-Marie Astart formally founded the Domaine les Hautes Cances. They chose to follow environmentally friendly farming methods and used a varied collection of old oak barrels to produce wines with a fabulous expression of the terroir. In 2019 the Domaine was purchased by the Amadiou family, of Gigondas fame, who have preserved the Astart family's commitment to sustainable winemaking and have already started a programme of further investment into the winery and the vineyards.

Table 17 Château Du Moulin Rouge Haut-Medoc, Bordeaux, France. Represented by Geoffrey Ribeiro

Château du Moulin Rouge, a small but perfectly formed Cru Bourgeois Supérieur estate, was first founded in the eighteenth century and has been owned by the same family for thirteen generations. Situated between Margaux and St Julien, the 27 hectare estate is now under the custodianship of brother and sister Lucie Secret and Geoffrey Ribeiro. Just as the generations before them have done, Lucie and Geoffrey are dedicated to respecting the heritage of the estate and winemaking style whilst ensuring that the estate's commitment to sustainable viticulture and modern winemaking allows the Château continue to produce meticulously crafted wines for generations to come.

Located in Olite, the wine capital of Navarra, Bodegas Ochoa is a family owned winery that strives to convey the spirit, passion, and dedication of over 160 years of winemaking in every bottle they produce. The current generations to run the estate, Javier and his daughter Adriana, are widely seen as pioneers for the Navarra region, with several of their research projects resulting in improvements to the DO. With meticulous care in the vineyard and skilful winemaking, Bodegas Ochoa continues to set the standard for quality wines in the region, producing wines that rival some of the best in neighbouring Rioja. The estate is currently in conversion to becoming fully organic.

Table 23 Bodegas De La Marquesa Valserrano Rioja Alavesa, Spain. Represented by Pablo de Simón

Established in the second half of the 19th century, this long-established family owned Bodega lies in the village of Villabuena, drawing fruit from estate-owned vineyards on the limestone ridges of Rioja Alavesa in Northern Spain. The estate's founder, Francisco Javier Solano y Eulate, the then Marquis of the Solana following the advice of a famous Bordeaux winemaker started ageing their wines according to methods widely used in Médoc and decided to sell them after further bottle ageing. Four generations later, the Bodegas, is under the custodianship of Juan Pablo De Simón and Milans del Bosch, great-grandsons of Francisco, who continue to produce wines in the same style and winemaking philosophy that inspired the Marquis of the Solana as well as embracing modern winemaking methods.

Today, Manuel Maria Martinho, the sixth generation, runs the winery alongside winemaker Rodrigo Martins. Staying true to their heritage, traditional winemaking methods are still in use, including crushing the grapes by feet and fermentation using natural yeasts in traditional open tanks known as 'lagares'.

Hoffmann & Rathbone is a boutique winery located in the picturesque village of Mountfield, East Sussex. Run by husband and wife team Ulrich Hoffmann and Birgit Rathbone, their wines tell a story of a love and passion for craft and artistry in winemaking. Ulrich's experience and expertise allow him to create very small quantities of ultra-premium, modern sparkling wine, using traditional methods, aged for long periods, with care and patience. 'Nothing is released until it is ready to be sold and unless it is worthy of the brand.' Ulrich Hoffmann.

Bodega Miguel Merino Rioja, Spain.
Represented by Miguel Merino

Bodega Miguel Merino is one of the smallest cellars of DOC Rioja. It was founded in 1994 by Miguel Merino Snr, who after many years exporting Spanish wines throughout the world, he made his dream of having a small 'bodega' to make the best possible wines, come true. Miguel established his winery in Briones, one of the most beautiful villages in Rioja and most importantly one of the few areas in Rioja Alta that kept old vineyards. All of the bodega's vineyards are from the surrounding area, spread across no less than 34 parcels of land planted under vine between the end of the 19th century and 2001. The vineyard holdings total almost 13 hectares with just 55,000kgs of grapes harvested on average each year. Traditional and sustainable viticulture practices are followed with no use of herbicides and most of the work carried out by hand. The bodega's reputation has soared in recent years under the stewardship of Miguel's son (also Miguel), reinforced by the recent elevation to Rioja First Growth in Tim Atkin's annual classification.

Bodegas Valduero Ribera Del Duero, Spain.
Represented by Alfonso Gonzalez

Valduero, founded in 1984, was one of the first wineries established in Ribera Del Duero. It is family-run, owned and managed by sisters Yolanda and Carolina Garcia Viadero. Yolanda was the first woman to produce wine in the region and remains an active member of the appellation's board. The winery chose higher altitude vineyard sites for their quality potential, rather than those on lower ground. This focus on quality in the vineyard has resulted in Valduero consistently producing some of the region's best wines.

Represented by Marcos Rapado Segurado

Domaine de Pallus is located in the Loire Valley's prestigious Chinon appellation, spread across 12 hectares of vineyards located on the hillside, which are all considered as Grand Cru. Fifth generation family member Bertrand Sourdais has been in charge since 2005. The site, Cravant les Coteaux, offers perfect conditions for growing Cabernet Franc. As part of the estate's commitment to sustainable winemaking, biodynamic principles of viticulture are extensively used. Domaine de Pallus wines reflect both the unique terroir and the contemporary style of the estate.

Château Grand-Puy Ducasse Pauillac, Bordeaux.
Represented by David Launay

Château Grand-Puy Ducasse is a renowned winery located in the Pauillac appellation of Bordeaux. With a history dating back to the 18th century, in recent years the Château has seen huge investment undertaking its Renaissance Project - an impressive state-of-the-art redevelopment of the facilities at this historic estate in downtown Pauillac. The vineyards span 40 hectares and are primarily planted with Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. Château Grand-Puy Ducasse produces a grand vin and a second wine, Prélude. It was classified as a Fifth Growth in the Bordeaux Wine Official Classification of 1855.
