AUTUMN
TASTING
2025

FIFTH GENERATION WINE MERCHANTS

DAVY'S

Est. 1870

Welcome to our 2025 Autumn Wine Tasting. This traditional tasting at Vintners' Hall has become one of the highlights of the calendar, ideally timed to help you select wines to drink over the festive season and for planning gifts to send to colleagues, friends and family.

This year, we are proud to welcome more producers than ever before, representing key wine regions from around the world, many of whom we work with exclusively in the UK.

In addition, we have curated a special selection of seasonal highlights, small parcels and rare large formats.

We hope you enjoy the tasting and thank you for joining us.

James Davy
Chairman, 5th Generation

Jean Becker, Alsace, France - represented by Jean Baptiste Becker

The Becker family's winemaking legacy dates back to 1610, in Zellenberg, a village opposite Riquewhir, in eastern France. The estate is now in the hands of the thirteenth generation, who have overseen the organic certification of their vineyard holdings, spread across five Grand Cru areas of Alsace. The estate is run by Martine Becker and her brothers Jean Philippe and Jean Francois.

Little Beauty, Marlborough, New Zealand - represented by Fleur McCree

This great little privately-owned estate lies in Marlborough's Southern Valleys, where the wines differ slightly from the mainstream. This delectable Single Vineyard property is spread over five blocks, each with its own soil profile and microclimate, allowing stellar winemaker Eveline Fraser the chance to make unusually complex, multi-dimensional, terroir-driven wines. Production is limited across all five varietals. All wines are 100% Sustainably Accredited.

Davy's Own Label Selection - represented by Davy's Team

Only wine that meets our exacting standards are bottled with the Davy family name on. James Davy and the wine team will either ask producers to blend wine to a specific style, or taste many samples until they are completely satisfied that the wine chosen is indicative of its appellation, and is the very best it can be for the price point.

Pelassa, Piedmont, Italy - represented by Daniele Pelassa

Located in Montà d'Alba, in the chalky Roero hills of Piedmont, the Pelassa family owns 16 hectares of vineyards focused on the grapes best suited to the land: Nebbiolo, Barbera, and Arneis. In the early 2000's Davide and Daniele Pelassa took over the running of the estate from their father Mario, who founded the family business in 1960. The wines are now made in a modern cellar with unique sustainability-focussed design features, and continue to go from strength to strength.

Espaço Rural Bojador - represented by Frederico Brum

Espaço Rural is the personal project of Pedro Ribeiro and his wife, Catarine Vieira. They were both winemakers in other Portuguese regions before relocating to Vidigueira, Alentejo. They adopt methods such as low yields, careful pruning, and early harvesting - in addition to organic farming methods - in the vineyard. In tribute to winemaking traditions of the region, they ferment some of their wines in impermeable pots called Talha, where the wine and skins must remain in contact.

Josep Grau Viticultor is the personal project of Josep Grau Closa, oenologist and winery owner. With a house style which is far removed from fads or trends, rather a commitment to authentically reflect Montsant's unique terroir through varieties like Garnacha and Carignan. In 2016, Josep, seeing the potential for Priorat as a premium winemaking region, invested in a 17th-century house in Gratallops, along with six hectares of vineyard, which is divided into four plots.

Quinta da Silveira, Douro Valley, Portugal - represented by Rodrigo Martins & Manuel Maria Martinho

Situated in the Douro Valley, Quinta da Silveira was founded in the mid-19th century and has since remained in the same family. Today, Manuel Maria Martinho, the sixth generation, runs the winery alongside winemaker Rodrigo Martins. Staying true to their heritage, traditional winemaking methods are still in use, including crushing the grapes by feet and fermentation using natural yeasts in traditional open tanks known as 'lagares'.
